O Love O Love
O Love that will not let me go
O Love I rest my weary soul in thee
I give thee back the life I owe
That in thy ocean depths its flow
May richer fuller be

O Joy O Joy
O Joy that seeks me through the pain
O I cannot close my heart to thee
I trace the rainbow through the rain
And feel the promise is not vain
That morn shall tearless be

O Love O Love
O Love that will not let me go
O Love I rest my weary soul in thee
I give thee back the life I owe
and in thy ocean depths its flow
Shall richer fuller be that morn shall tearless be

O Love O Love

An Uplifting Gift

Remember a time when you were in a crisis when life was dark, dour and desperate? You were in a quandary, at sixes and sevens and you were discouraged. Then someone came along and offered words of comfort and assurance. And he or she urged you to persevere and never give up. If you have received such encouragement, how did you feel? Do you still remember that person today?

The God-given gift of encouragement is often under-rated, underestimated and under-used and yet it is such a vital and important gift that uplifts souls and builds the church.

The bible has provided many examples of men and women who were effective encouragers. One prime example was Barnabas. While every Christian has heard of Paul, many may not know who Barnabas was. While the apostles were busy converting people and setting up churches, Barnabas was constantly encouraging the believers to spur them to greater efforts. He was someone who connected people for the greater good of the then nascent church. When Paul was tasked by God to spread the gospel after his spectacular and “blinding” conversion, many Christians shuddered to go near him in view of his brutal and ruthless track record of persecuting Christians. But Barnabas welcomed and endorsed Paul and thus paving the way for Paul's ministry to proceed (Acts 11: 21-26). Subsequently, Barnabas continued to mentor and encourage a young John Mark after he had failed in his ministry and was rejected by Paul.

However, the greatest encourager of the whole universe is God. The bible is replete with stories of how God encouraged and assured his people when the chips were down and the situation was dire.

For example, when Moses passed away and Joshua was tasked to lead the Israelites to take the Promised Land, Joshua must have felt daunted. First, he had very big shoes to fill and second, the Promised Land was filled with many nations with terrifying, formidable and intimidating armies. How did God respond to Joshua's predicament?

He gave Joshua the following encouragement, command and assurance.

“Keep this Book of the Law always on your lips; meditate on it day and night, so that you may be careful to do everything written in it. Then you will be prosperous and successful. Have I not commanded you? Be strong and courageous. Do not be afraid; do not be discouraged, for the Lord your God will be with you wherever you go.” (Joshua 1:8-9)

Brothers and sisters, let us never cease to encourage each other so that we may be strong and courageous in glorifying God.

Conclusion

Bible Readings & Prayer Points

Monday

Read Luke 16:1-2. How does God expect us to relate to those who are non-believers?

May God grant the teachers and leaders of our Sunday School ministry wisdom and the ability to share the love of God with the children.

Tuesday

Read Luke 16:3-4. Reflect on a time when you took matters into your own hands instead of relying on God. What happened?

Pray that God will continue to give the churches in Singapore effectiveness in sharing the gospel in the wider community.

Wednesday

Read Luke 16:5-7. Do you agree with what the manager did in the parable? Would you have done the same?

Pray for the Session meeting to go well and for God's will to be accomplished arising from the discussion.

Thursday

Read Luke 16:8-9. Why did the master commend the dishonest manager?

Give thanks for those serving in the Visitation Ministry. Pray also for those who are unwell. May God continue to empower them to apply His healing touch upon them.

Friday

Read Luke 16:10-12. How trustworthy are you in carrying out the tasks that God has given to you?

Give thanks for those who are uncles and aunts. May they continue to guide and care well for their nephews and nieces.

Saturday

Read Luke 16:13. In your life, who do you serve? Who is your master?

Pray that our church members will show acts of kindness and love to each other and to others in the wider community.

The Gospel - the doctrine of first importance

6 August 2023

11 am - 12.15 pm

Venue: The Chapel

Conducted by Rev. Dr. Clive Chin

The Gospel in terms of Christian Discipleship

An important question among Evangelical churches concerns discipleship and its relationship to faith. According to Jesus, following him in discipleship means total commitment and giving him first place in one's life. That is, one cannot follow Jesus without setting the right priorities in life. Jesus rejects making a distinction between saving faith and discipleship as an optional step.

This talk aims at two learning outcomes.

1. To show how the gospel rightly works out in the massive transformation of attitudes, morals, and relationships.
2. To clarify the relationship between justification and sanctification.

John Calvin insists that justification is by faith alone, but genuine faith is never alone.

HISTORY OF THE CHURCH

The Orchard Road Presbyterian Church was founded in 1856 to minister to the needs of the Scots community in Singapore. The first church building on the present site was completed in 1878, and has been extended several times, notably in 1975 when the sanctuary was extended and in 1985 when the new extension of the Dunman Hall was completed and a new chapel was built. Alongside the growth of the physical facilities has been the development of the church from an English-speaking expatriate congregation to a local church embracing four different language congregations and a new branch church at Bukit Batok (1995). In addition to the English-speaking congregation, the Indonesian congregation (1976) and the German congregation (1978) now regularly worship and minister as part of Orchard Road Presbyterian Church. In 2005, the Mandarin congregation (1968) became independent as Providence Presbyterian Church but continues to use the buildings for worship and ministry. In 2013, the branch church at Bukit Batok also became independent and is now Bukit Batok Presbyterian Church.

FAITH AND MEMBERSHIP

As a church with our roots in historic Presbyterianism growing out of the Westminster Confession of Faith, we affirm the Lordship of our Saviour, Jesus Christ. We look to the Scriptures as the inspired word of God and the one authoritative and infallible standard for our faith and practice. We welcome those who profess Jesus Christ as their personal Lord and Saviour into our formal membership. Our membership is truly international, representing the breadth of God's call upon people from all ethnic and economic backgrounds.

Members are received upon initial profession of faith in Jesus Christ by baptism, confirmation and in transfer from other Christian churches. Classes for baptism, confirmation and for transfer of membership are held periodically and announced in the bulletin.

THE APOSTLES' CREED

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth; and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell, the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the Life everlasting. AMEN

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil; for thine is the kingdom, and the power and the glory, for ever and ever. AMEN

DOXOLOGY

Praise God from whom all blessings flow; Praise him, all creatures here below; Praise him above, ye heavenly host; Praise Father, Son and Holy Ghost. AMEN
