Once In David's Royal City

IRBY

Words by Cecil F Alexander, Music by Henry J Gauntlett, arr by D Wilcocks

Solo

Once in royal David's city Stood a lowly cattle shed,
Where a mother laid her Baby In a manger for His bed;
Mary, loving mother mild, Jesus Christ her little child.

Choir

He came down to earth from heaven Who is God and Lord of all,
And His shelter was a stable, And His cradle was a stall:
With the poor, the scorned, the lowly Lived on earth, our Saviour holy.

* Congregation

Jesus is our childhood's pattern; Day by day like us He grew;
He was little, weak, and helpless, Tears and smiles like us He knew;
And He feels for our sadness, and He shares in our gladness.

And our eyes at last shall see Him Through His own redeeming love;
For that child so dear and gentle Is our Lord in heav'n above;
And He leads His children on To the place where He is gone.

6. Advent Reading

* Congregation

Four candles, burning bright, chasing away the darkness from light.
Four candles, glowing bright, the blessing of God, giving new sight.

(Sung) O Come to my heart, Lord Jesus,
There is room in my heart for you.

* 7. Opening Carol

Joy To The World

ANTIOCH

Words by Isaac Watts, Music by George Handel

Joy to the world , the Lord is come! Let earth receive her King;
Let every heart prepare Him room,
And heaven and nature sing, And heaven and nature sing,
And heaven, and heaven, and nature sing.

Joy to the world, the Saviour reigns! Let men their songs employ;
While fields and floods, Rocks, hills and plains
Repeat the sounding joy, Repeat the sounding joy.
Repeat, repeat, the sounding joy.
Repeat, repeat, the sounding joy.

8. Bidding Prayer & The Lord's Prayer (Sung)

Our Father, Who art in heaven, Hallowed be Thy Name, Thy Kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil; For Thine is the Kingdom, and the power and the glory, for ever and ever. AMEN.

9. Prologue

The Beginning

GENESIS 1

In the beginning, God created the heavens and the earth. Now the earth was formless and empty, darkness was over the surface of the deep. Then God said, "Let there be light," and there was light. God separated the light from the darkness and the water from the dry land. God made the land to produce all kinds of plants and trees. He made the sun, the moon and the stars to separate the day from the night, and to mark seasons and years.

Then God filled the earth with creatures great and small, with every kind of bird and every kind of animals. Then God said, "Let Us make man in Our image, in Our likeness, and let them rule over the fish of the sea and the birds of the air, over the livestock, over all the earth, and over all the creatures that move along the ground."

So God created man and woman in His Own image.

Of The Father's Love Begotten

DIVINUM MYSTERIUM

Words by Aurelius C Prudentius, Plainsong

Of the Father's love begotten, Ere the worlds began to be,
He is Alpha and Omega, He the Source, the Ending He,
Of the things that are, that have been,
And that future years shall see,
Evermore and evermore.

11. First Lesson

The Fall Of Adam And Eve

GENESIS 3:1-15

Now the serpent was more crafty than any of the wild animals the Lord God had made. He said to the woman, "Did God really say, 'You must not eat from any tree in the garden?'" The woman said to the serpent, "We may eat fruit from the trees in the garden, but God did say, 'You must not eat fruit from the tree that is in the middle of the garden, and you must not touch it, or you will die.'"

"You will not surely die," the serpent said to the woman. "For God knows that when you eat of it your eyes will be opened, and you will be like God, knowing good and evil." When the woman saw that the fruit of the tree was good for food and pleasing to the eye, and also desirable for gaining wisdom, she took some and ate it. She also gave some to her husband, who was with her, and he ate it. Then the eyes of both of them were opened, and they realized they were naked; so they sewed fig leaves together and made coverings for themselves.

Then the man and his wife heard the sound of the Lord God as He was walking in the garden in the cool of the day, and they hid from the Lord God among the trees of the garden. But the Lord God called to the man, "Where are you?" He answered, "I heard You in the garden, and I was afraid because I was naked; so I hid."

And God said, "Who told you that you were naked? Have you eaten from the tree that I commanded you not to eat from?" The man said, "The woman you put here with me – she gave me some fruit from the tree, and I ate it."

Then the Lord God said to the woman, "What is this you have done?" The woman said, "The serpent deceived me, and I ate."

So the Lord God said to the serpent, "Because you have done this, "Cursed are you above all the livestock and all the wild animals! You will crawl on your belly and you will eat dust all the days of your life. And I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your offspring and hers; he will crush your head, and you will strike his heel."

12. Choral Response

God Walked In Eden's Garden Fair

CONDUCTOR ALME SIDERUM

Words by Hal Hopson

God walked in Eden's garden fair, Such beauty there none could compare.
It soon became a place of shame; There Adam's sin disowned God's name.
Kyrie eleison. (Lord, have mercy on me)

A world of peace was swept away When Adam chose to disobey.
We too are marked by Adam's fall; We still refuse to hear God's call.
Christe eleison. (Christ, have mercy on me)

The tale of Adam is our own, Like him we see God's love made known;
Yet we rebel and go our way, The bitter cost we then must pay.
Kyrie eleison. (Lord, have mercy on me)

13. Second Lesson

God's Promises To Abraham

GENESIS 12:1-3

The Lord had said to Abram, "Leave your country, your people and your father's household and go to the land I will show you. I will make you into a great nation and I will bless you; I will make your name great, and you will be a blessing. I will bless those who bless you, and whoever curses you I will curse; and all peoples on earth will be blessed through you."

15. Third Lesson

Christ Birth And Kingdom Are Foretold By Isaiah

ISAIAH 9:2, 6-7

The people walking in darkness have seen a great light; on those living in the land of the shadow of death a light has dawned. For to us a Child is born, to us a Son is given, and the government will be on His shoulders. And He will be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace. Of the increase of His government and peace there will be no end. He will reign on David's throne and over his kingdom, establishing and upholding it with justice and righteousness from that time on and forever. The zeal of the Lord Almighty will accomplish this.

O Come, O Come Emmanuel

VENI EMMANUEL

Translated by John Neale, Plain chant

That mourns in lonely exile here Until the Son of God appear.

Congregation

Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel Shall come to you, O Israel!

Men

Oh, come, Desire of nations, Bind all peoples in one heart and mind;
Bid envy, strife and quarrels cease, Fill all the world with heaven's peace.

Come, Thou Long-Expected Jesus
Words by John Wesley, Music by Rowland Prichard

HYFRYDOL

Come, Thou long-expected Jesus, Born to set Thy people free;
From our fears and sins release us, Let us find our rest in Thee.
Israel's strength and consolation, Hope of all the earth Thou art;
Dear Desire of every nation, Joy of every longing heart.

Born Thy people to deliver, Born a Child and yet a King,
Born to reign in us forever, Now Thy gracious kingdom bring.
By Thine own eternal spirit Rule in all our hearts alone;
By Thine all sufficient merit, Raise us to Thy glorious throne.

17. Fourth Lesson      Isaiah Speaks Of The Peace That Christ Will Bring

ISAIAH 11:1-4, 6-9

A shoot will come up from the Stump of Jesse; from His roots a Branch will bear fruit. The Spirit of the Lord will rest on Him – the Spirit of wisdom and of understanding, the Spirit of counsel and of power, the Spirit of knowledge and of the fear of the Lord – and He will delight in the fear of the Lord.

He will not judge by what He sees with His eyes, or decide by what He hears with His ears; but with righteousness He will judge the needy, with justice He will give decisions for the poor of the earth.

The wolf will live with the lamb, the leopard will lie down with the goat, the calf and the lion and the yearling together; and a little Child will lead them. The cow will feed with the bear, their young will lie down together, and the lion will eat straw like the ox. The infant will play near the hole of the cobra, and the young child put his hand into the viper's nest. They will neither harm nor destroy on all My holy mountain, for the earth will be full of the knowledge of the Lord as the waters cover the sea.

18. Carol

Lo, How A Rose E'er Blooming

ES IST EIN ROS'

16th century German carol, Music by Geistliche Kirchengesang

Women & Children

Lo, how a Rose e'er blooming From tender stem hath sprung!
Of Jesse's lineage coming, As those of old have sung.
It came, a flower bright, Amid the cold of winter,
When half gone was the night.

Men & Children

Isaiah 'twas foretold it, The Rose I have in mind;
With Mary we behold it, The virgin Mother kind.
To show God's love aright, She bore to us a Saviour,
When half gone was the night.

Congregation

This Flow'r, whose fragrance tender With sweetness fills the air,
Dispels with glorious splendour The darkness everywhere.
True man, yet very God, From sin and death He saves us,
And lightens every load.

19. Fifth Lesson

The Angel Gabriel Announces That Mary Will Be The Mother Of Jesus

LUKE 1:26-35, 38

In the sixth month, God sent the angel Gabriel to Nazareth, a town in Galilee, to a virgin pledged to be married to a man named Joseph, a descendant of David. The virgin's name was Mary.

The angel went to her and said, "Greetings, you who are highly favoured! The Lord is with you." Mary was greatly troubled at his words and wondered what kind of greeting this might be.

But the angel said to her, "Do not be afraid, Mary, you have found favour with God. You will be with child and give birth to a son, and you are to give Him the name Jesus. He will be great and will be called the Son of the Most High. The Lord God will give Him the throne of His father David, and He will reign over the house of Jacob forever; His kingdom will never end."

"How will this be," Mary asked the angel, "since I am a virgin?" The angel answered, "The Holy Spirit will come upon you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you. So the holy one to be born will be called the Son of God.

"I am the Lord's servant," And Mary answered. "May it be to me as you have said." Then the angel left her.

20. Choral Response

My Heart, Your Bethlehem

Words and Music by Schram & Gaines

Will You have a place to lay Your head on the night of Your holy birth;
A crown, or a robe of royal thread, as Your life begins on earth?"
Though some will not receive You, or know just who You are,
I will prepare a place for You, a home within my heart.

I'll make my heart Your Bethlehem,
Where You, O Lord, can enter in.
Shine Your light, let Your life in me begin,
And make my heart Your Bethlehem.

O holy Child of Bethlehem, descend to us, we pray.
Cast out our sin and enter in; be born in us today!
Though some will not believe You are the Saviour born for them,
I will prepare a place for You, a home within my heart.

I'll make my heart Your Bethlehem,
Where You, O Lord, can enter in.
Shine Your light, let Your life in me begin,
And make my heart Your Bethlehem.

How silently, how silently the wondrous gift is giv'n.
So God imparts to human hearts the blessings of His heav'n.
Though some will not receive You, or know just who You are,
I will prepare a place for You, a home within my heart.

I'll make my heart Your Bethlehem,
Where You, O Lord, can enter in.
Shine Your light, let Your life in me begin,
And make my heart Your Bethlehem.

Make my heart Your Bethlehem.

In those days Caesar Augustus issued a decree that a census should be taken of the entire Roman world. And everyone went to his own town to register. So Joseph also went up from the town of Nazareth in Galilee to Judea, to Bethlehem the town of David, because he belonged to the house and line of David. He went there to register with Mary, who was pledged to be married to him and was expecting a child. While they were there, the time came for the baby to be born, and she gave birth to her firstborn, a son. She wrapped Him in cloths and placed Him in a manger, because there was no room for them in the inn.

And there were shepherds living out in the fields nearby, keeping watch over their flocks at night. An angel of the Lord appeared to them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified. But the angel said to them, "Do not be afraid. I bring you good news of great joy that will be for all the people. Today in the town of David a Saviour has been born to you; He is Christ the Lord. This will be a sign to you: You will find a baby wrapped in cloths and lying in a manger." Suddenly a great company of the heavenly host appeared with the angel, praising God and saying, "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to men on whom His favour rests."

When the angels had left them and gone into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, "Let's go to Bethlehem and see this thing that has happened, which the Lord has told us about." So they hurried off and found Mary and Joseph, and the baby, who was lying in the manger.

O Come, let us adore Him, Christ the Lord!

After Jesus was born in Bethlehem in Judea, during the time of King Herod, Magi from the east came to Jerusalem and asked, "Where is the one who has been born King of the Jews? We saw His star in the east and have come to worship Him."

When King Herod heard this he was disturbed, and all Jerusalem with him. When he had called together all the people's chief priests and teachers of the law, he asked them where the Christ was to be born. "In Bethlehem in Judea," they replied, "for this is what the prophet has written: "But you, Bethlehem, in the land of Judah, are by no means least among the rulers of Judah; for out of you will come a ruler who will be the Shepherd of My people Israel."

Then Herod called the Magi secretly and found out from them the exact time the star had appeared. He sent them to Bethlehem and said, "Go and make a careful search for the Child. As soon as you find Him, report to me, so that I too may go and worship Him."

After they had heard the king, they went on their way, and the star they had seen in the east went ahead of them until it stopped over the place where the Child was. When they saw the star, they were overjoyed. On coming to the house, they saw the Child with His mother Mary, and they bowed down and worshipped Him. Then they opened their treasures and presented Him with gifts of gold and of incense and of myrrh.

And having been warned in a dream not to go back to Herod, they returned to their country by another route.

28. Ninth Lesson

John Unfolds The Great Mystery Of Incarnation

JOHN 1:1-5, 10-12, 14

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was with God in the beginning. Through Him all things were made; without Him nothing was made that has been made. In Him was life, and that life was the light of men. The light shines in the darkness, but the darkness has not understood it.

He was in the world, and though the world was made through Him, the world did not recognize Him. He came to that which was His own, but His own did not receive Him. Yet to all who received Him, to those who believed in His name, He gave the right to become children of God.

The Word became flesh and made His dwelling among us. We have seen His glory, the glory of the One and Only, who came from the Father, full of grace and truth.

* 29. Carol

The Word Made Flesh

VICKI

Words and Music by John Purifoy; based on John 1:14-17

The Word made flesh has dwelt among us, Full of grace and full of truth.
We beheld His wondrous glory Of the only Son of God.

We have beheld His glory, And we have seen the light.
Anointed Prince of glory, We marvel at Thy sight.

The Word made flesh has dwelt among us,
From His fullness we received Grace on grace and lasting mercy,
Truth and wisdom, hope and peace.

We have beheld His glory, And we have seen the light.
Anointed Prince of glory, We marvel at Thy sight.
